Robert Gericke, Managing Director of Proventus Property, Lda., confirmed his satisfaction with the new solution: „This agreement allows us to use both, the synergies created over the past few years and the good relationship between both companies. At the same time, the brand PROVENTUS.PROproperty will support us in granting continuous support for international investors in Portugal and abroad, based on our unique mixture of local and international expertise regarding commercial real estate management, brokerage and financial advisory in Portugal.“
